TRINITY COLLEGE.

This College, founded in 1823 as a College of the Protestant Episcopal Church, offers to members of the Church and of all Christian bodies, a course of Education based upon religious principles, and intended to train its students to be good scholars, good citizens and good men.

Its grounds comprise fourteen acres, bordering on the City Park of Hartford. Its buildings are three in number. Seabury Hall, so named from the first Bishop of Connecticut, contains the Chapel, Library, and Cabinet, and other public rooms. The Library consists of about 7,000 volumes. Jarvis and Brownell Halls, named from the second and third Bishops of the same Diocese, contain recitation and lodging rooms.

Four Professorships are either partly or wholly endowed, under the names of Seabury, Hobart, Brownell, and Scovill. An endowment for a fifth, to be called the Massachusetts Professorship, has been begun. Four Library Funds, the Elton, the Sheffield, the Peters, and the Burgess, and one Prize Fund, the Tuttle, have been established. The Scholarships are enumerated on another page.

The late Rev. Nathaniel S. Wheaton, D. D., the second President, and for twenty-eight years a Trustee of the College, has recently left to the Institution a large bequest, the greater portion of which is set apart for the erection of a Chapel.

ADMISSION.

CANDIDATES for admission to the Freshman Class will be examined in the following studies:

GREEK DEPARTMENT.

St. John's Gospel.

Jacob's or Felton's Greek Reader, entire.

Hadley's or Sophocles' Greek Grammar.

Arnold's Greek Prose Composition, to page 35.

LATIN DEPARTMENT.

Cicero's Orations against Catiline, and on the Manilian Law.

Virgil, Æneid, Books I.–VII., Georgics, Book I., and Eclogues.

Cæsar's Commentaries, Books I.–VI.

Andrews and Stoddard's Latin Grammar, Revised Edition, including Prosody.

Arnold's Latin Prose Composition, to Chap. XIII., "The Passive Voice."

MATHEMATICAL DEPARTMENT.

Eaton's Arithmetic.

Loomis' Algebra, to Quadratic Equations.

Loomis' Plane Geometry, Books I. and II.

ENGLISH AND HISTORICAL DEPARTMENTS.

English Grammar.

Ancient and Modern Geography.

Instead of any of the text-books above enumerated, others, if fully equivalent, will be received. The examination in Greek and Latin will have especial reference to the Grammars and Prose Composition of the two languages.

EXAMINATIONS.

The regular examination for admission is held at the Cabinet in Seabury Hall, on the Tuesday preceding Commencement, beginning at nine o'clock, A. M. A second examination is likewise held at the same place at nine o'clock, A. M., on the day before the beginning of Christmas Term.

No student can be admitted to the Freshman Class before he has completed his fifteenth year.

Candidates for an advanced standing must sustain a further examination on the studies pursued by the class which they propose to enter.

All candidates for admission must present themselves with testimonials of good moral character; and those who are from other Colleges must produce certificates of dismission in good standing.

MATRICULATION.

All non-matriculated persons are considered as on probation, and, therefore, not entitled to the full privilege of members of the Institution. Upon giving evidence of good character, they are admitted to matriculation at the close of the term in which they have entered. Unless they are allowed to matriculate at the end of the second term of their course, they cease to be students of the college.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS; AND THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE.

Provision has been made in the College Statutes, that students who do not propose to attend the whole course, may be permitted, under the name of University Students, to recite with the regular classes, in such studies as, upon examination, they shall be found qualified to pursue.

They are expected to attend at least three recitations or lectures daily. They are subject to the same rules and enjoy the same privileges as the regular students; and on leaving with an honorable dismission, are entitled to a certificate from the President, stating the time they have been members of the College, and the studies pursued by them during that time.

University Students may receive the degree of Bachelor of Science, provided they have resided at least two years and a half in College, and have regularly passed their examinations in all the prescribed studies of the Academic course, except the Latin and Greek; together with a further and more particular examination, satisfactory to the Faculty and Board of Examiners, in either of the following branches, viz.: the Differential and Integral Calculus; Practical Astronomy; Analytical and Agricultural Chemistry; Geology and Mineralogy; Natural History; or Civil Engineering.

Any Student of the College may receive the Degree of Bachelor of Science, together with that of Bachelor of Arts, upon passing a special examination in the regular Mathematical and Scientific course, and the further examination above indicated.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

Commencement is the Thursday next before the Fourth of July. Christmas Term begins about the 1st of September, and closes near the 20th of December. Trinity Term begins near the 20th of January and closes at Commencement.

The Christmas vacation is about four weeks. The Trinity vacation is nine weeks from Commencement day. In addition to the Christmas vacation, leave of absence is allowed in term time to those students who desire to keep school.

RELIGIOUS WORSHIP AND INSTRUCTION.

Daily Morning and Evening Prayer is said in the College Chapel. Addresses on religious subjects are delivered in connection with the Chapel Services. The Holy Communion is celebrated and Confirmation is administered at stated seasons. The Right Reverend Visitors may be expected to hold services in the Chapel, from time to time.

Until arrangements are made for Sunday services in the Chapel, students will attend public worship at such places as their parents or guardians may desire.

Instruction is given every Monday morning, either in the Greek Testament, or in various text-books or lectures on History of the Church, of the Scriptures, and of the Book of Common Prayer; the Creed; Natural Theology, and Christian Evidences. This instruction is continued throughout the Academic course.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The fee for tuition ($50 per annum) may be wholly or partly remitted to all who are unable to pay it, on special application to the Faculty. This is effected chiefly through twenty-four Scholarships endowed by subscriptions in the Diocese of Connecticut, two Scholarships established under an agreement with the Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in New York, the Scholarship of St. Paul's Church, Troy, New York, and the Heartt Scholarship.

All charges (about $100 per annum) are remitted to the holders of the five Scholarships of Trinity Church, New York.

The Thomas Backus Scholarship, founded by the Rev. Stephen Jewett, M. A., to be held "by some beneficiary designing to enter the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church," yields one hundred dollars annually, for which the beneficiary is to give his obligation, payable, with interest, four years after he leaves the College.

The Church Scholarship Society, of the Diocese of Connecticut, aids a number of students with loans, not exceeding $100 per annum, which are granted only to persons in necessitous circumstances, preparing for Holy Orders, and sustaining a correct deportment as communicants. Applicants must be furnished with a testimonial of such qualifications, signed by a clergyman to whom they are personally known.

NOTE.—No student, incurring a serious College censure in the course of the year, will be recommended for any Scholarship.

EXPENSES.

For tuition, (remitted, if necessary) $25 per term; for room rent, (with a room-mate,) $10 per term; for care of rooms, fuel for recitation rooms, and printing, $10 per term; all payable in advance. There may also be assessments for damages or other common expenses.

Students admitted to an advanced standing, unless honorably dismissed from other Colleges, are required to pay $12 for each term of their advancement.

The students reside in the College, and furnish their own rooms. They board in private families. Good board can now be procured for $2.75 per week.

Provision has been made for supplying necessitous students with text-books.

To prevent extravagant or improper expenditures, it is recommended that all funds designed for the use of students, should be placed in the hands of the College Bursar, Professor Brocklesby.

PRIZES.

THE TUTTLE PRIZE, OF THIRTY DOLLARS:

To be given to that member of the Senior Class who shall write the best essay on "The Safeguards of College Life."

There must be at least three competitors, and the essays must be submitted to the President by the 1st of April, 1863. The successful competitor will consider himself under obligation to read his essay before the College.

THE PRESCOTT HISTORICAL PRIZE, OF TWENTY DOLLARS:

To be given by the President to that member of the Senior Class who shall write the best historical essay on "The Civil Wars of England."

THE PRESIDENT'S CLASSICAL PRIZE.

A copy of Irving's Life of Washington will be given by the President to that student (of any class,) who shall write the best translation, both in Greek and in Latin, of the two paragraphs of Washington's Farewell Address, beginning with "The unity of Government," and ending with "sufferings and successes."

There must be at least five competitors, and the translations must be submitted to the President at the close of the Easter Recess.

GREEK PRIZES.

A copy of Rawlinson's Herodotus will be given by the Professor of Greek to that member of the Junior or Sophomore Classes who shall write the best Greek prose version of the paragraph of Gibbon's Roman Empire, Chapter L., headed "His Character." There must be at least three competitors.

A copy of Grote's History of Greece will be given by the same professor to that member of the Freshman Class who shall pass the best examination in Greek at the Trinity Annual Examinations.

PRIZES IN THE MODERN LANGUAGES.

Two prizes, consisting of works of Classical German authors, will be given by the Professor of Modern Languages to those members of the Senior and Junior Classes (one prize for each class) who shall make the best written translation into German of the first twelve "Aphorisms" in Coleridge's Aids to Reflection.

Two prizes, consisting of works of Classical French authors, will be given by the same Professor to those members of the Junior and Sophomore Classes (one prize for each class) who shall make the best written translation into French of the last chapter in Harrison's English Language.

There must be not less than three competitors for each of these prizes. The names of the competitors are to be given in before February 1st, and the translations by May 1st, 1863.

The German Prize of 1862 was awarded to J. J. McCook.

CHEMICAL PRIZE.

Subject,—"Fire Damp."

The Chemical Prize of 1862 was awarded to R. W. Linen.

TERM EXAMINATIONS.

These are held at the end of each term, in presence of the Faculty, and of Examiners appointed by the Fellows. The Christmas Examinations are upon the studies of the preceding term; and the Trinity Examinations upon all the studies of the year.

TERM REPORT.

An account of the scholarship and conduct of every student is transmitted to his parents or guardian at the close of each term.

PROPOSED DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY SCIENCE.

At the Annual Meeting of the Corporation, a Committee was appointed to consider the proposal of establishing a Department of Military Science. It is in contemplation to introduce a course of instruction, including physical exercises, tactics, and such scientific studies as are fully adapted to secure the end in view.

The Department may be organized by the beginning of the next Academic year.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.
